The Café.....A play in Two Acts

A teenager, MJ, comes to live with "Auntie," a poetry café owner. In this magical place, music and poetry propel the audience, along with MJ, through interactions with African American poets of the past and present. We learn the important relevance of poetry, and the art of self-expression (releasing the poet within) via the spoken word.

$15 Adults

$10 Children under 12 years of age
